

Your future at
CT awaits

CT: Is CT the place for you?

Are you a recent school leaver or are in your final year of school who is motivated, ambitious, and has a desire to learn?

We are offering an exciting opportunity to join our growing personal tax team as a Personal Tax Trainee Associate - a direct pathway to become a qualified tax adviser. You don't need a degree to build a successful career; this role is a practical alternative to gain experience and work in a professional environment from day one.

This is a 5-year training contract, where you will learn “on the job” from experienced tax professionals, earning a salary, gaining real work experience whilst obtaining your professional tax qualifications (ATT and CTA).

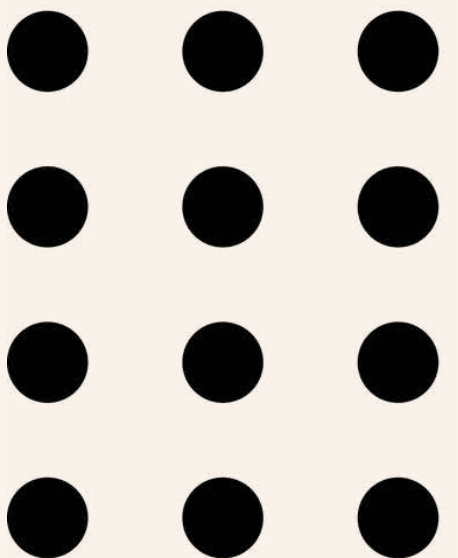

CT: The role

As a Personal Tax Trainee Associate, you will be a key part of our personal tax team, learning the skills required to provide expert advice and support to a range of clients. As a large team we offer both tax compliance and advisory services to our clients and you will have the chance to get involved in interesting work.

Responsibilities will include preparation of tax returns, conducting research on tax rules and guidance, communication directly with HMRC on client matters and supporting the team with administrative tasks.

You will learn not only the technical skills required for role, but the interpersonal and soft skills required from a tax adviser which will be key to your future growth in the industry.

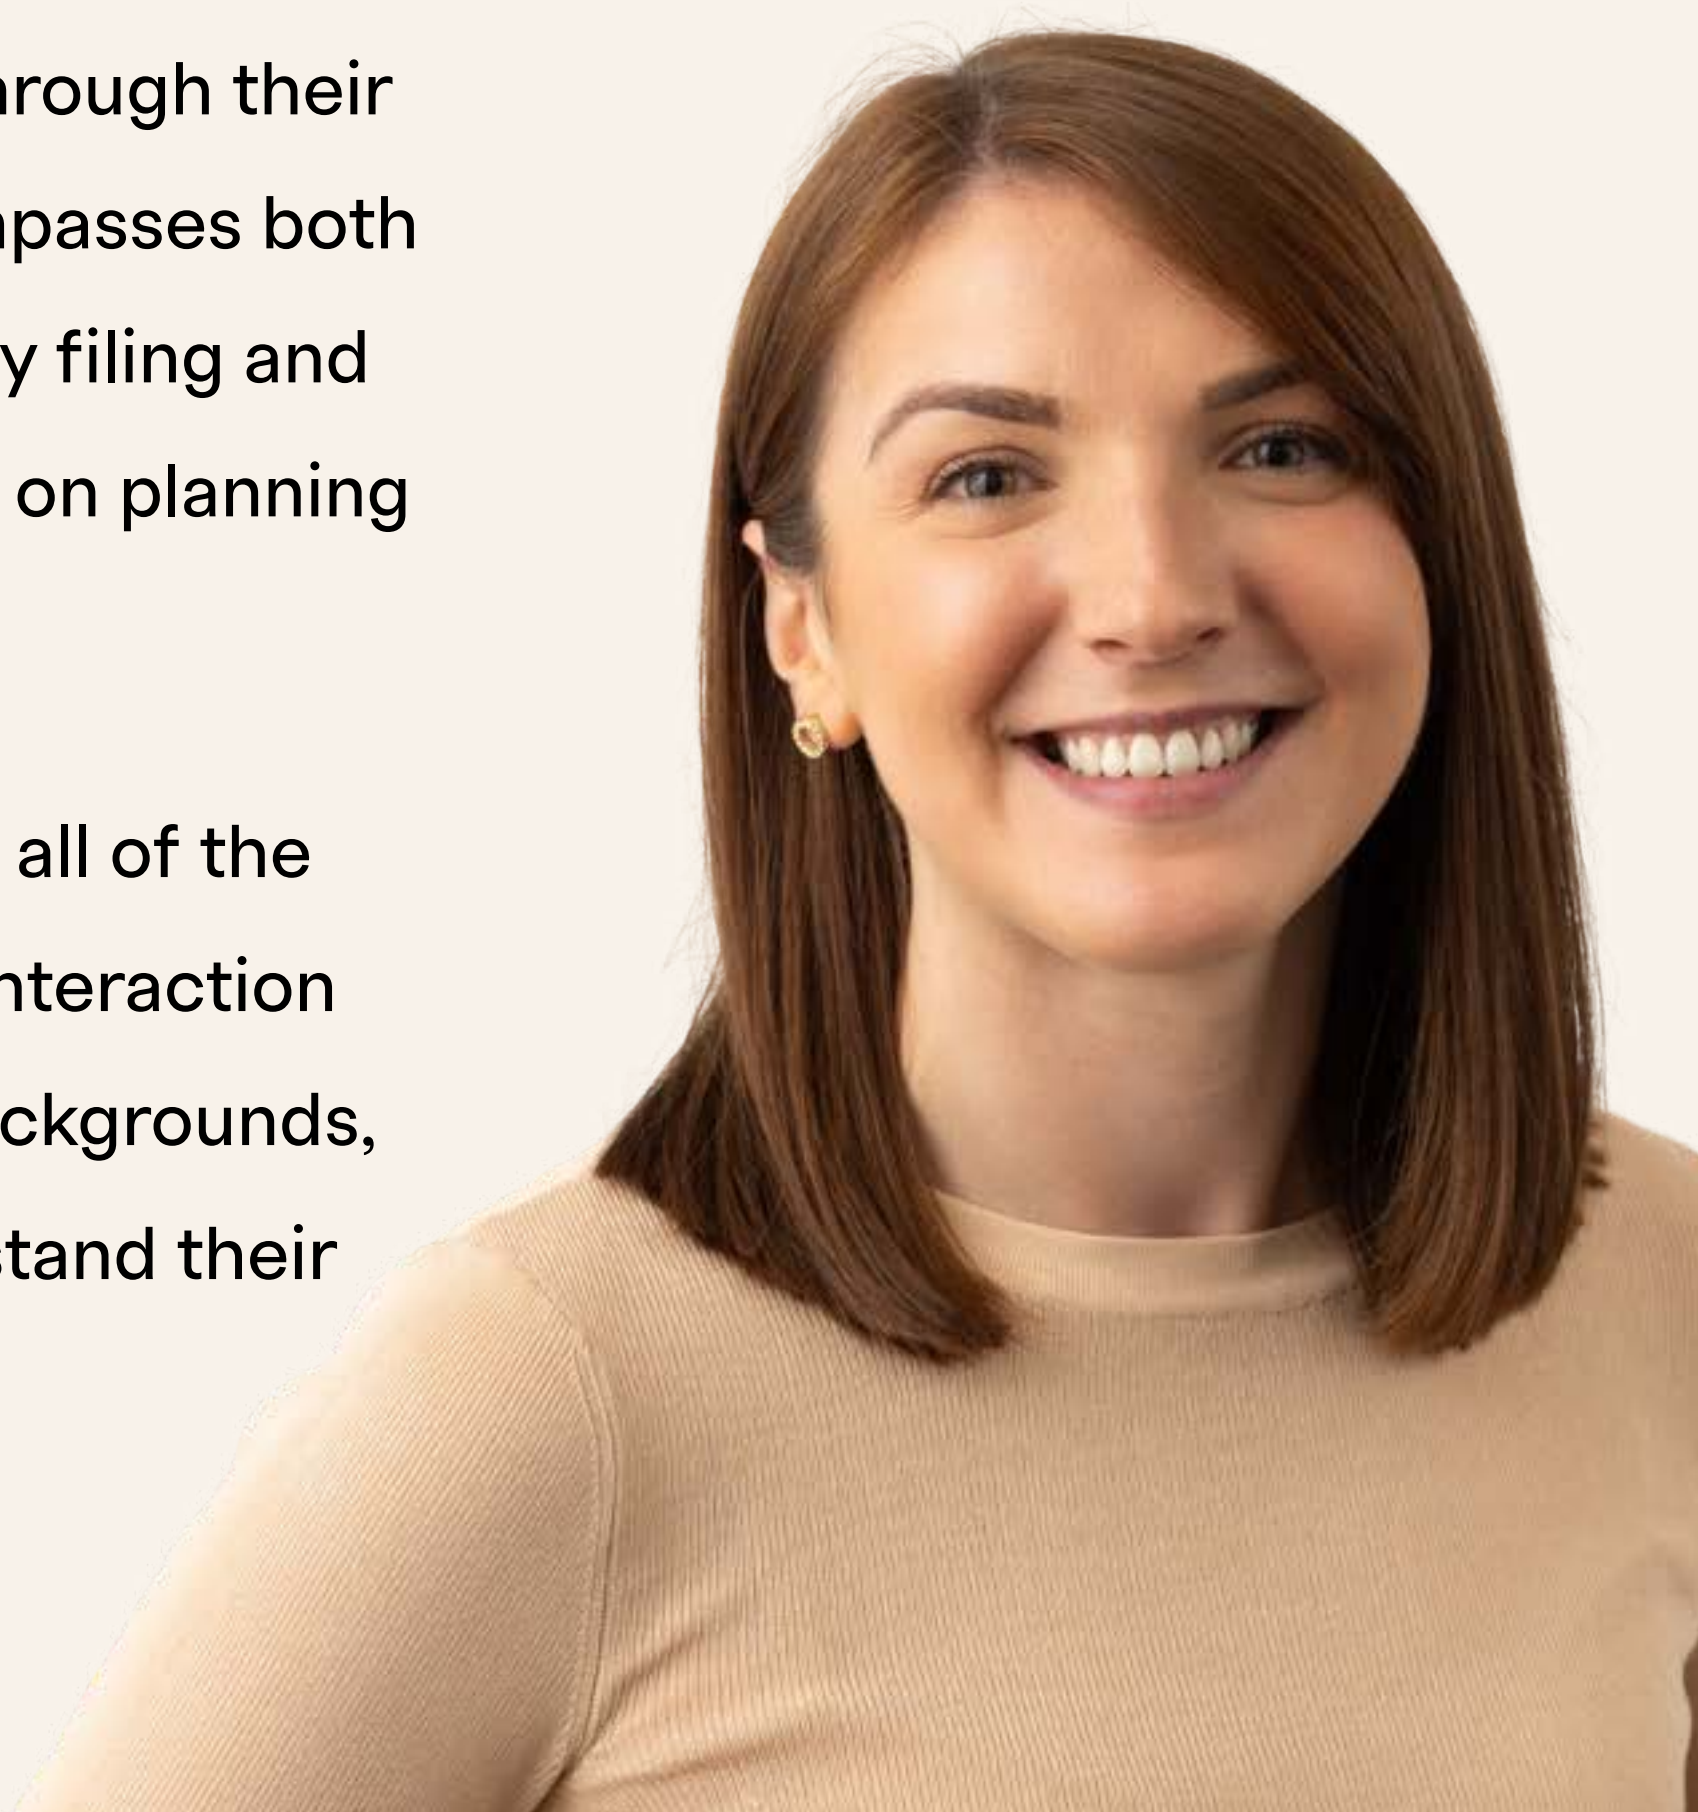

CT: What is personal tax?

Personal tax is a system of taxation applied to individuals through their income and their assets (when sold and on death). It encompasses both tax compliance matters, ensuring individuals meet statutory filing and payment requirements, and advisory services, which focus on planning for the future and optimising our clients tax position.

“Every day brings something different and you are learning all of the time. I particularly enjoy personal tax because of the daily interaction with individuals from a range of different industries and backgrounds, sometimes families across different generations, to understand their needs and where we can add value to their tax affairs.”

Eilidh McCormick
Tax Manager

CT: What we're looking for

We are offering an opportunity to forge a rewarding career in a professional firm, learning hands on experience without a university degree. For successful candidates, we're looking for:

- A strong academic record including a Mathematics and English qualifications, at least at Higher level.
- A willingness to learn and ability to take initiative when approaching tasks.
- Excellent problem-solving skills and a keen eye for detail.
- Good communication skills, both written and verbal, to effectively interact with clients and colleagues.

CT: How to apply

If you are ready to kickstart your career in a firm that values you and your future, we would love to hear from you. Please submit your CV and a cover letter which includes details on your qualifications, work experience, your ambitions and why you think you would be a great fit for our team!

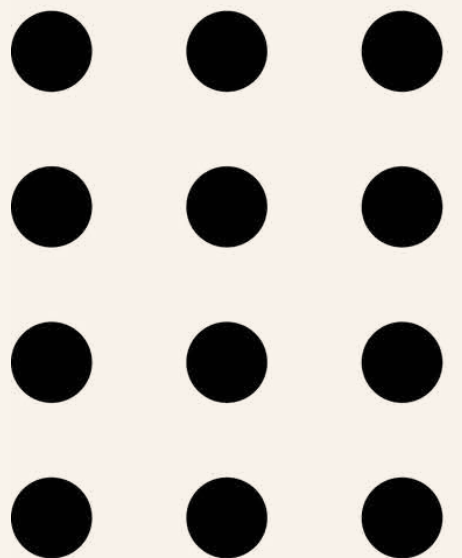

CT: About us

We're a people-led firm that offers audit, accounts and tax services to people, businesses and charities.

CT was founded in Edinburgh in 1885. Since then, we've grown to become one of Scotland's leading independent accountancy practices. This independence enables us to develop talent, ensure sustainability and deliver client experiences that are both cost-effective and of exceptional quality.

Our purpose, 'The joy of helping others succeed', is reflected in everything that we do and establishes a culture that strengthens our people and our business.

Working with numbers,
for people